Offer deposits may also be submitted by bank transfer provided the funds are received prior to the time of the closing of the offer and bank transfer information may be obtained from the office of the Receiver. If the offer is accepted and approved by the Court, if necessary, then this payment will be deemed to be a cash deposit and any interest thereon shall be to the credit of the Receiver and such interest is in addition to and does not form part of the purchase price. The successful offeror (who shall become the Purchaser) shall pay the balance of the purchase price to the Receiver at the closing. Any deposit will be forfeited as liquidated damages by the offeror to the Receiver if the offer is withdrawn at any time before notification of acceptance of the successful offer has been given. Deposits, excluding interest, shall be returned to each person whose offer is not accepted. No representation, warranty or condition is expressed or shall be implied as to title, description, fitness for purpose of intended use, quantity, condition or quality thereof in respect of any other matter or thing whatsoever, and each offeror shall be deemed to have relied entirely upon his inspection and investigation. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Assets are specifically offered, as they will exist on the closing date. If, on or before closing, it is found that there are encumbrances or charges against any of the property being offered for sale which the offeror has not agreed to assume in addition to, or as part of, their purchase price, the Receiver may rescind the agreement to sell the Assets in question and the offeror shall be entitled to the return of their deposit without interest and without any other compensation of any kind or nature whatsoever for any loss, damages or other costs. If the Receiver does not rescind, it shall have until closing to remove any such encumbrances or charges, failing which the Purchaser may terminate the agreement and shall be entitled to a refund of its deposit. The Purchaser shall have no other rights or remedies against the Receiver.

Offers received by the Receiver that do not strictly comply with the Terms and Conditions or which contain proposals to vary, amend or supplement the Terms and Conditions of Sale may, in the absolute discretion of the Receiver, be rejected. Before accepting an offer the Receiver may, in its sole discretion, negotiate with any potential Purchaser for changes to that person's offer. The Receiver shall not be obligated to negotiate with any potential Purchaser or to give any potential Purchaser an opportunity to resubmit an offer, whether or not the Receiver negotiates with any potential Purchaser. Upon receipt by the Receiver of an offer, the potential Purchaser submitting the offer shall not be entitled to retract, withdraw, revoke, vary or countermand the offer and such offer shall be irrevocable prior to acceptance or rejection thereof by the Receiver.
10. The Advertisement of this Invitation for Offers, the Offer, the Acceptance by the Receiver, and these Terms and Conditions of Sale, which shall be deemed to form part of such offer, shall constitute a binding "Agreement of Purchase and Sale" and time shall be of the essence of such agreement. There are no other terms or conditions of sale and there are no verbal or written collateral agreements.
11. 12. The details of the Assets which are the subject matter of the Invitation for Offers are included with these Terms and Conditions of Sale. The details have been prepared solely for the convenience of prospective Purchasers, are not warranted complete or accurate, and are subject to the other qualifications referred to in Condition 6 above. The information contained in the Receiver's Invitation Package has not been audited or reviewed in any way and is subject to Condition 8 above.
13. All offers shall be submitted on the Form of Offer, which is attached to these Terms and Conditions. Offers received by the Receiver that are not on the required Form of Offer may be rejected by the Receiver.
14. The Receiver will only consider offers for the Assets of Gander Automotive as described in Parcel 1 of the Invitation for Offers.
15. If any offer is accepted by the Receiver (acceptance shall be done so in writing, signed by the Receiver), then the successful offeror (Purchaser) shall be notified in writing by the Receiver of such acceptance within ten (10) business days of the acceptance thereof. Such notice of acceptance shall be deemed to be properly given when deposited in the post office, sent by fax, email, or personally delivered, as the case may be.
16. The Purchaser shall pay, or be responsible for, in addition to the purchase price, all applicable federal, provincial, and municipal taxes at closing, including any arrears and interest charges thereon, unless exemption certificates are supplied. The terms and conditions in this paragraph shall not merge on the closing of this transaction, but shall remain in full force and effect. Other adjustments at closing shall include tenants' rents and deposits (if any), prepaid expenses, municipal taxes, as well as other like adjustments as the Receiver deems appropriate.
17. The balance of the purchase price shall be due and payable on closing, which closing shall occur within thirty (30) business days after acceptance of an offer by the Receiver provided that where Court approval may be sought by the Receiver and has not been obtained within thirty (30) business days of the date of acceptance, the closing date shall be extended for a further thirty (30) business days, or to such other date as may be mutually agreed between the Receiver and Purchaser.
18. The sale may be subject to the approval of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland and Labrador. Conveyance of real property will be by Receiver's Deed or Trustee's Deed (if there is a bankruptcy) both without warranty of any kind.
19. If the Purchaser fails to comply with the terms and conditions of the Agreement of Purchase and Sale, the deposit and all other payments thereon shall be forfeited and the Assets may be sold and the deficiency, if any, by such resale, together with all charges attending to the same or occasioned by such default, shall be paid forthwith by the defaulting Purchaser.

20. The Receiver shall not be required to furnish or produce any surveys, real property reports, abstracts, deeds, declarations, or other documents as evidence of title except those in its possession. It is the responsibility of the Purchaser to satisfy itself as to title and conditions at their own expense within ten (10) business days of receipt of notice of acceptance of offer. All costs associated with the Purchaser's due diligence process are strictly for the account of the Purchaser. Without limiting the generality of such due diligence costs, they would include all legal costs, surveys, inspections, and insurance.
21. The Receiver (or its designate) shall remain in possession of the Assets until the purchase is complete and title to the Assets shall not pass to the Purchaser nor shall they be entitled to possession of same until the purchase price has been paid in full, unless otherwise agreed between the parties.
22. If, prior to the closing date, legal proceedings are either threatened or commenced by any person against the Receiver or its principals concerning the security, the Agreement of Purchase and Sale, or the Assets to be purchased, the Receiver may elect, in its sole discretion and upon notice to the Purchaser, to terminate the Agreement of Purchase and Sale.
23. The obligation of the Receiver to perform the Agreement of Purchase and Sale is conditional upon receipt of all necessary governmental or other approvals, waivers or releases as may be required to enable the Receiver to comply with its obligations thereunder.
